
Demographic changes in three Common Swift colonies in the Lombardy region, Italy

Emanuele Zanchin
Gruppo insubrico di Ornitologia

Photo by Silvio Cova

Logo by Giulia Belloni

The “Home Swift Home” Project

8 years of monitoring

2 swift towers and 1 wall

for a total of 604 nest chambers

A great opportunity to study colonies

Both private and public buildings

the project is still growing: 2 new sites

What kind of data?

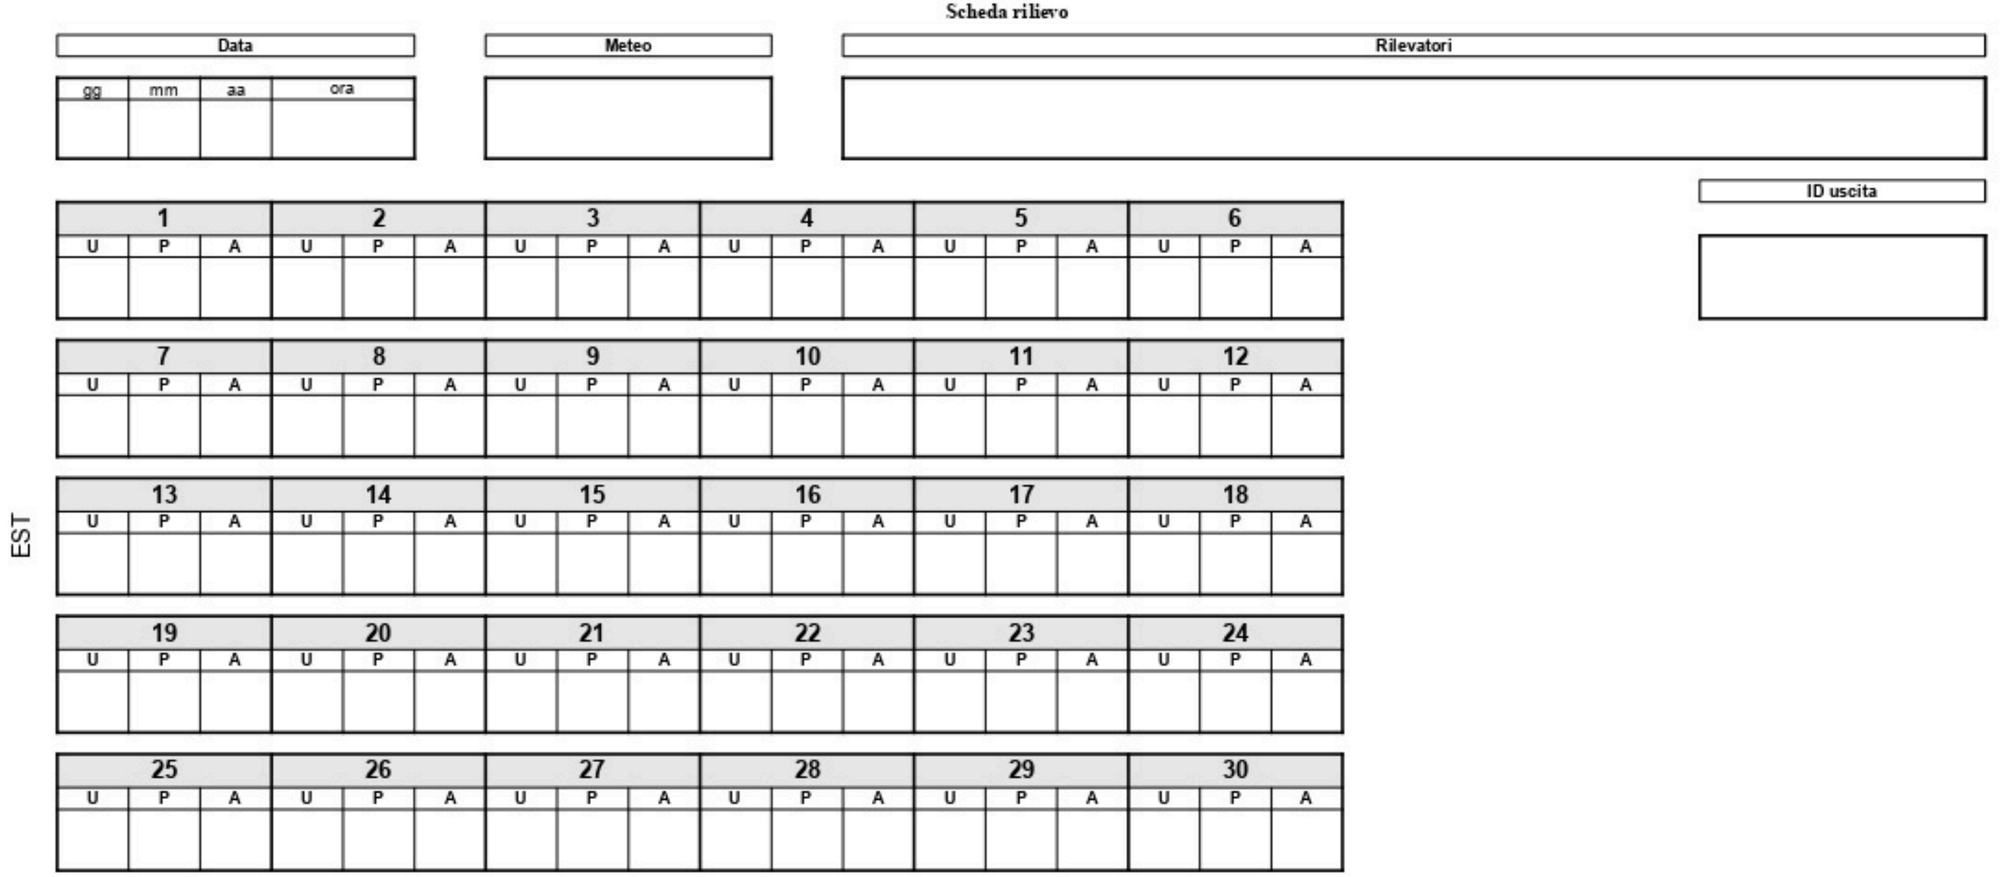
Weekly monitoring sessions

Ringing sessions

GPS tracking

Lab analysis of feathers, eggshells and Crataerina pallida

Photo by Silvio Cova

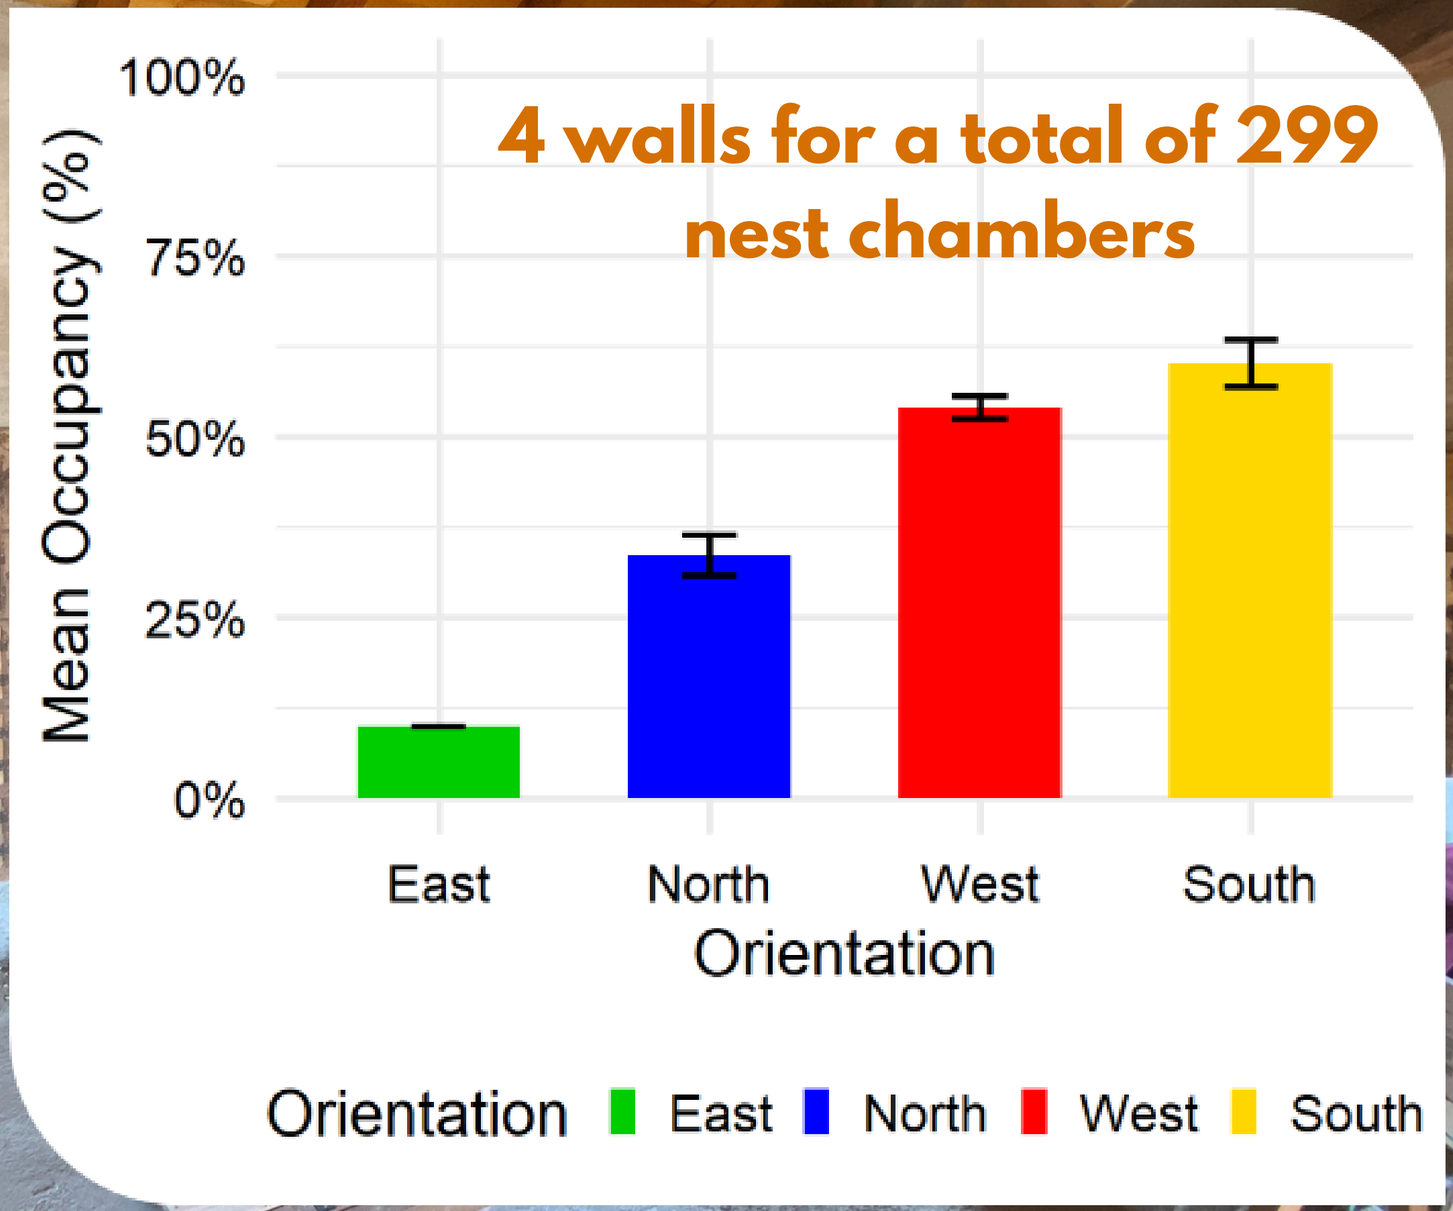


Jerago con Orago monitoring sheet

Cuggiono

Photo by
Milo Manica

Photo by Daniela Casola



Azzate

Photo by Franco Aresi

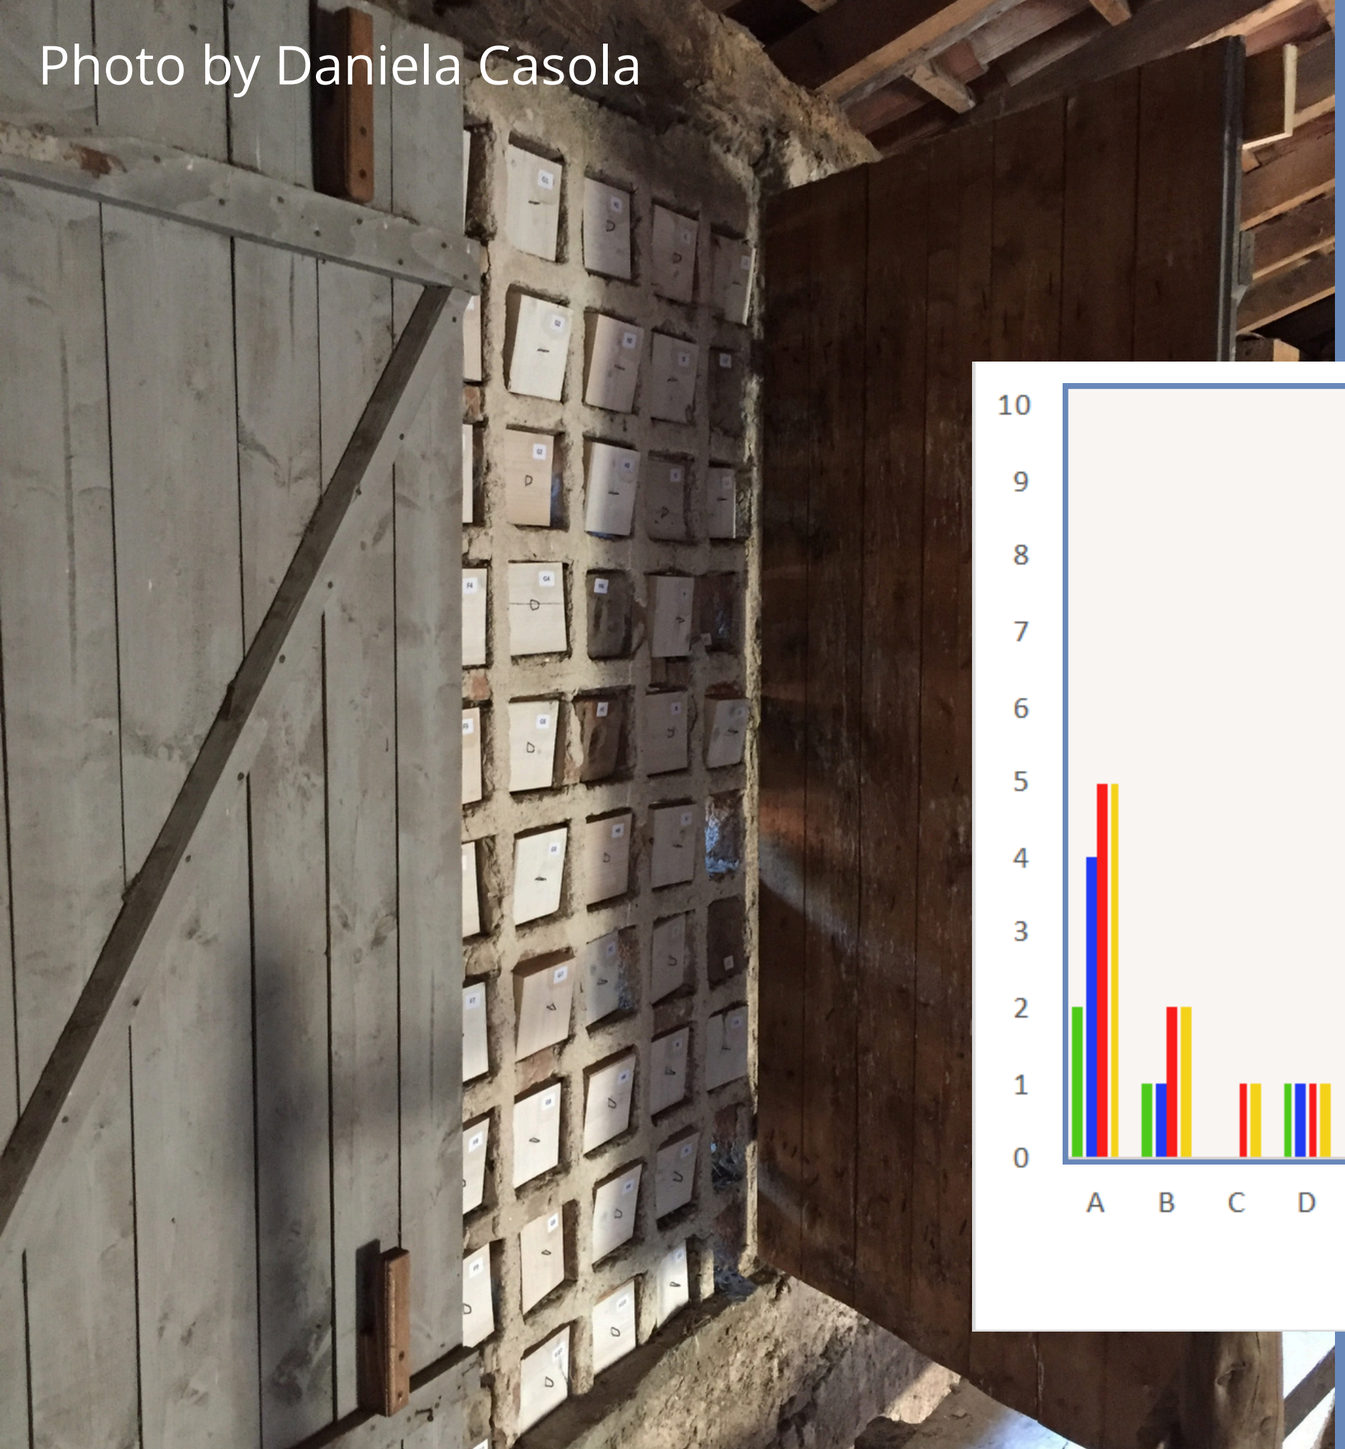


Photo by Daniela Casola

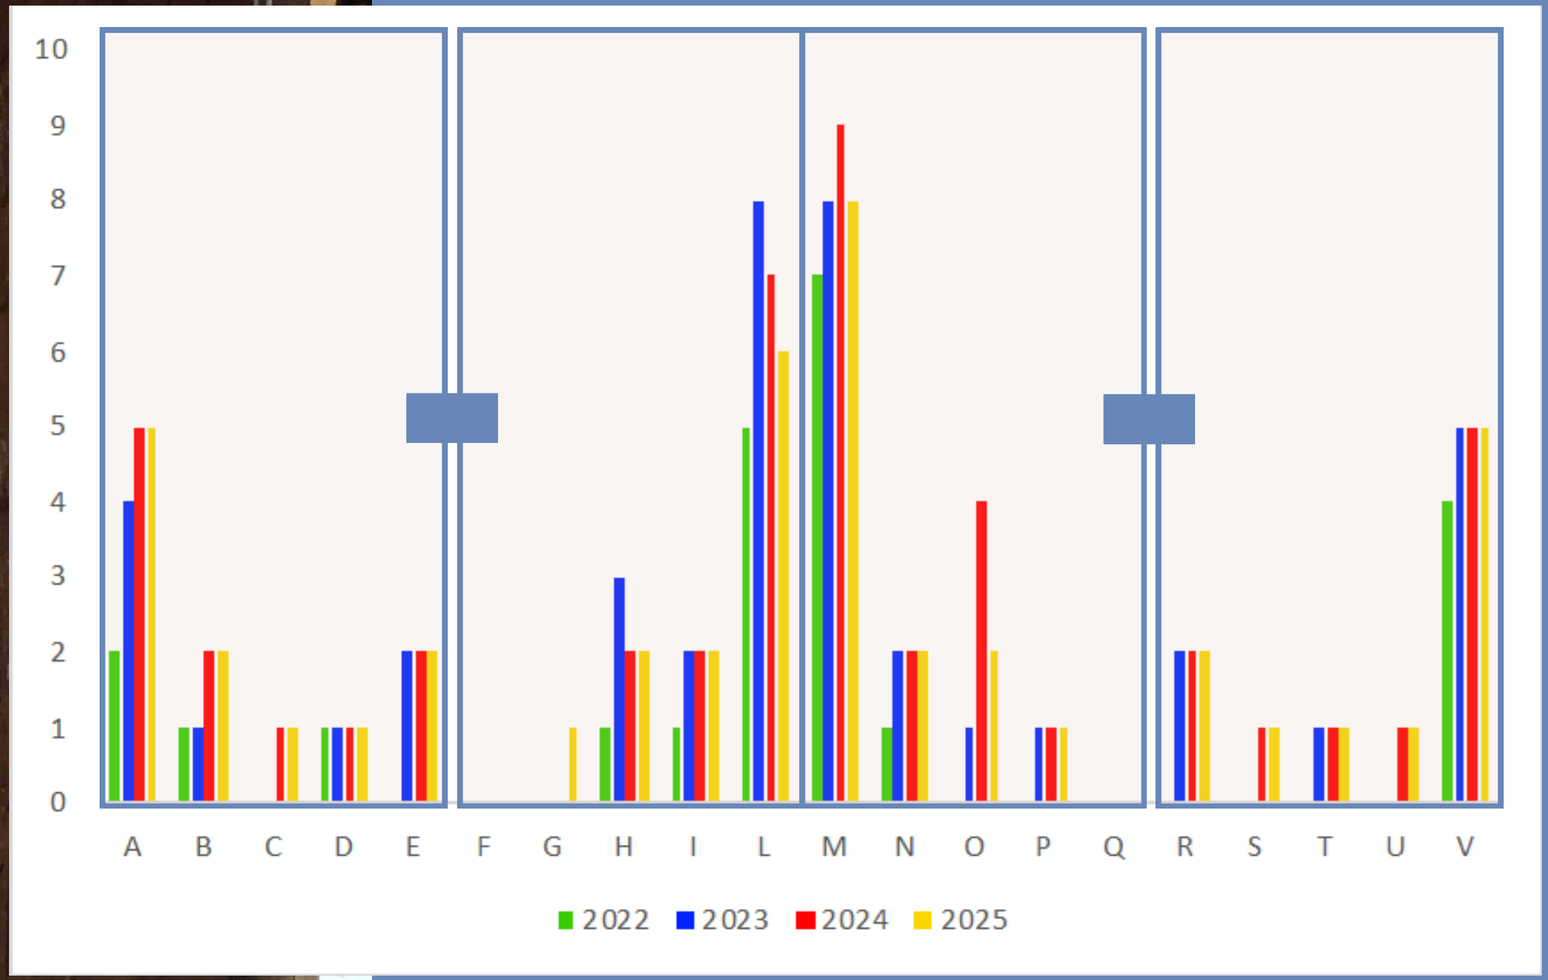
Nest chamber occupancy following the restoration



Jerago con Orago

Photo by Milo Manica

Photo by Lorenzo Colombo

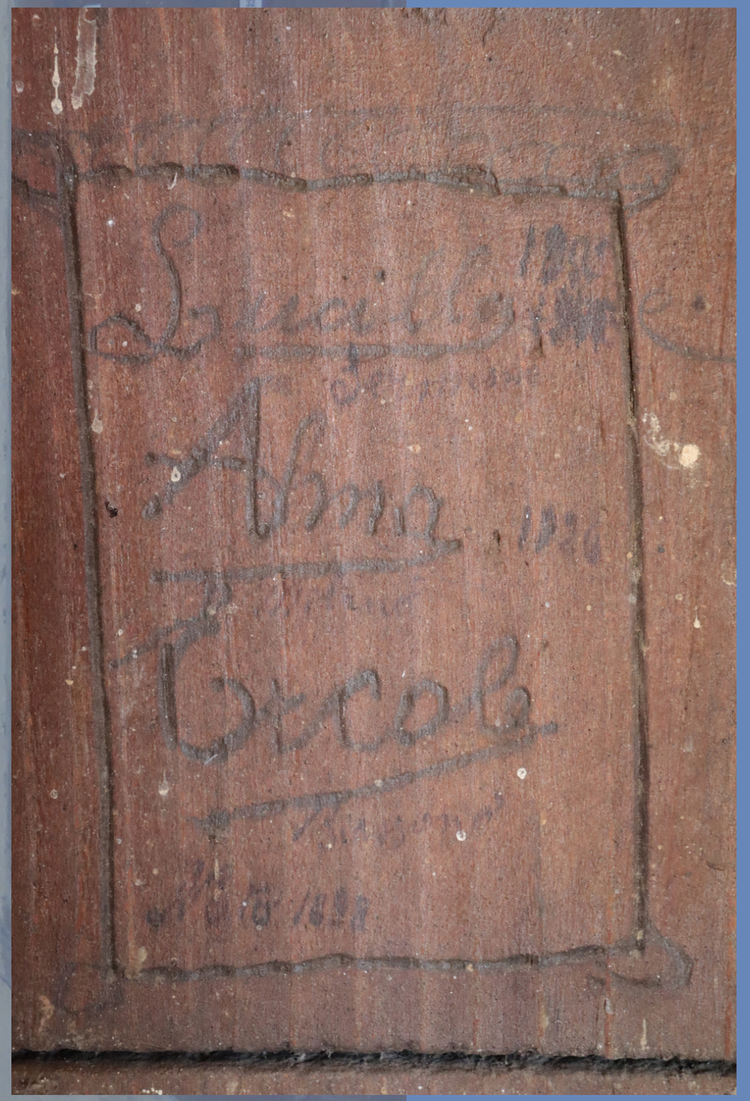


Photo by Silvio Cova

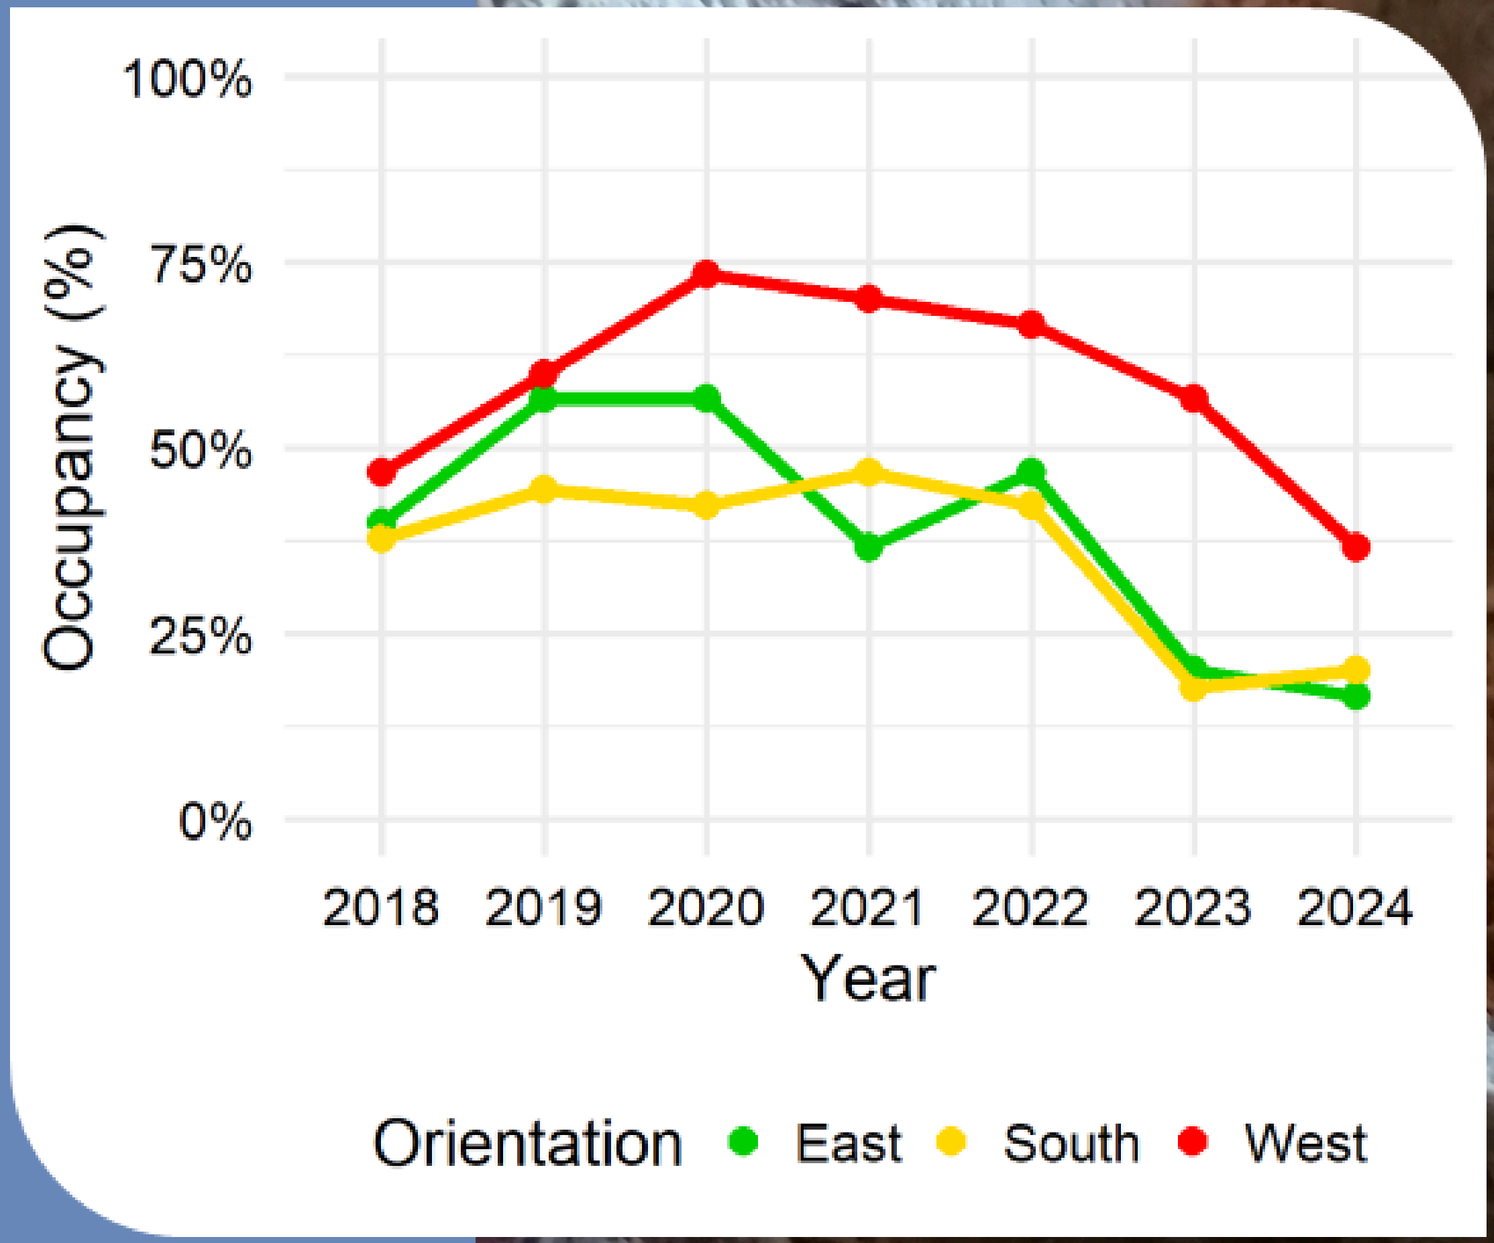

Photo by Emanuele Zanchin

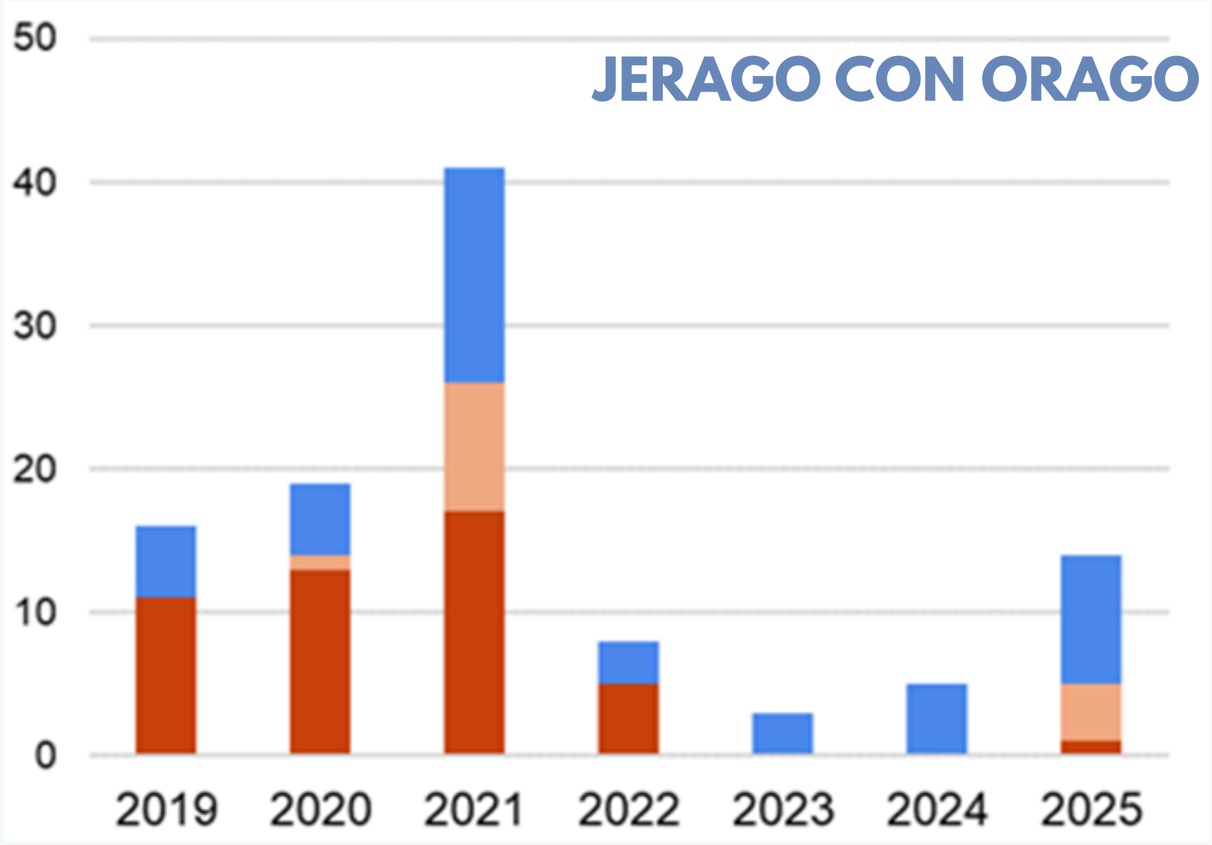
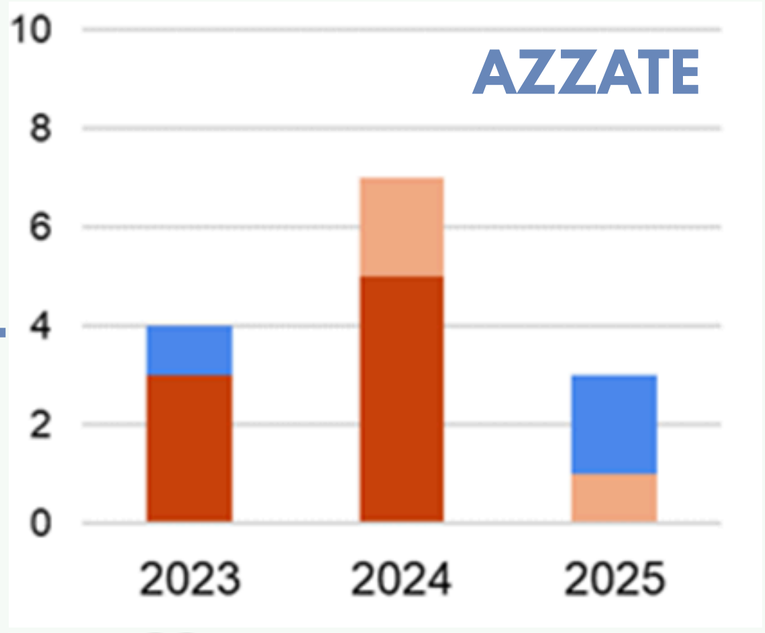
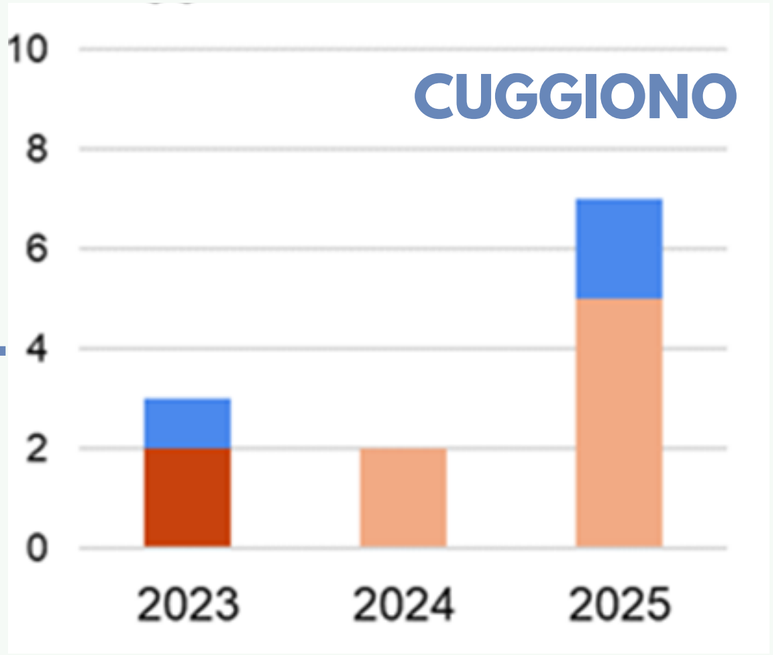
Nest-site fidelity





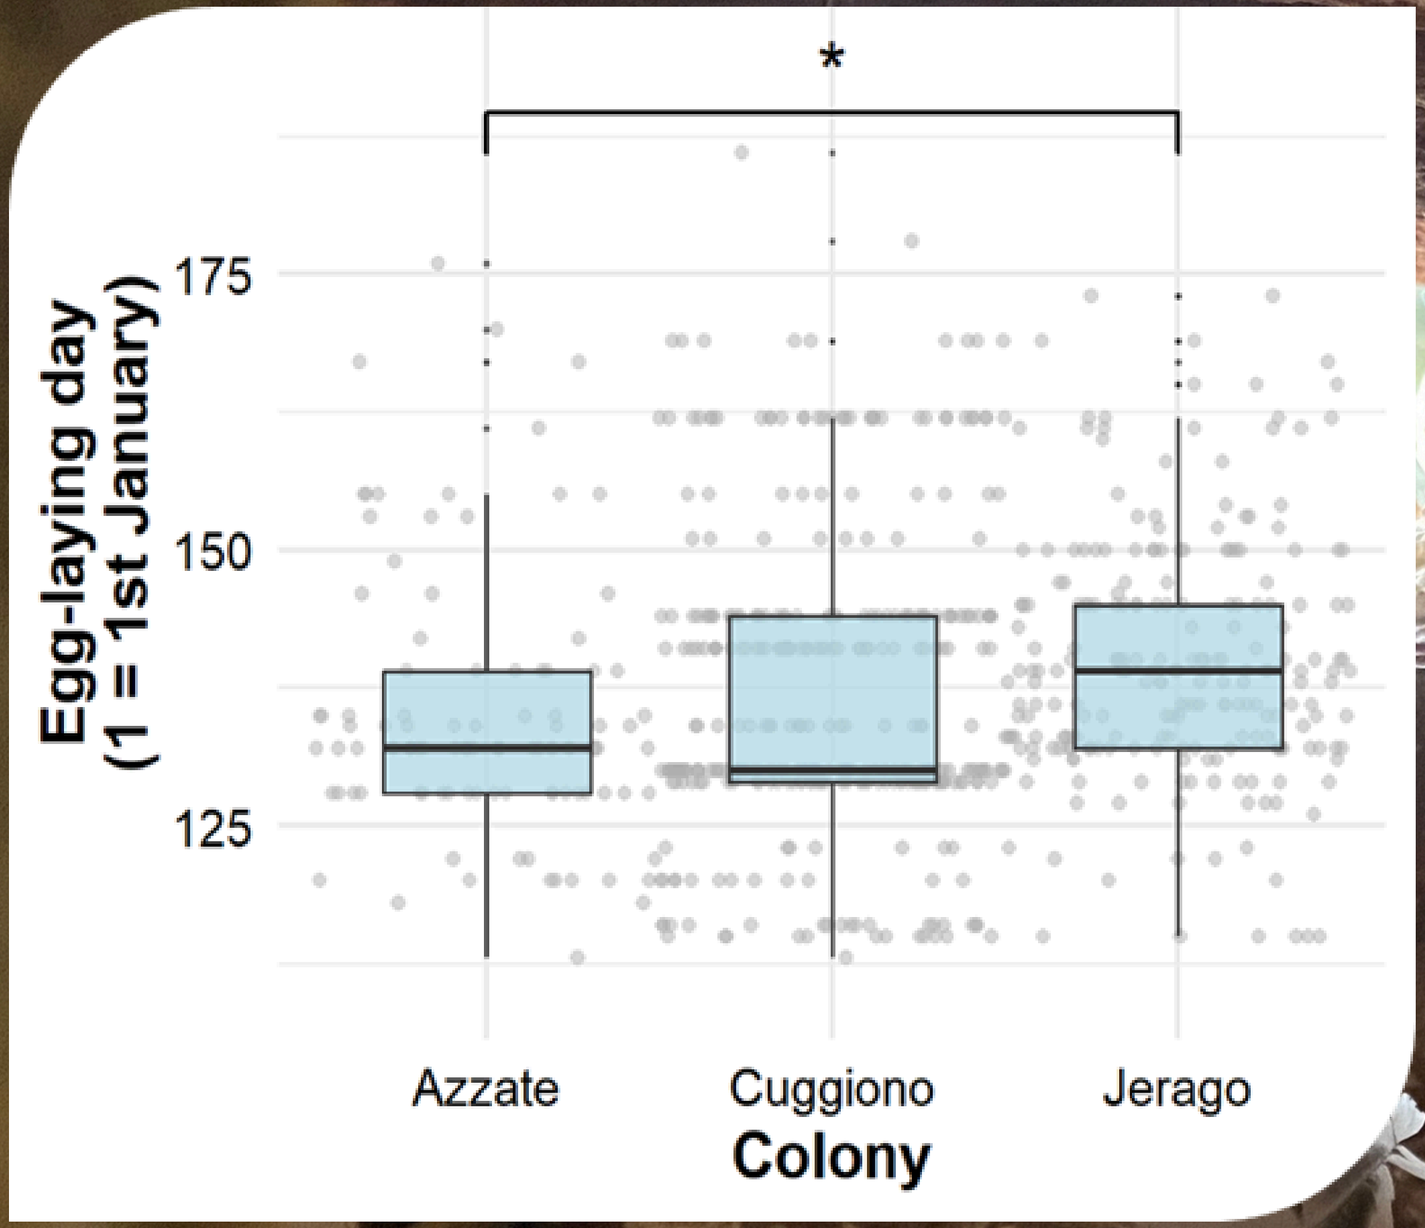


Same nest chamber as previous year

Same nest chamber as previous capture

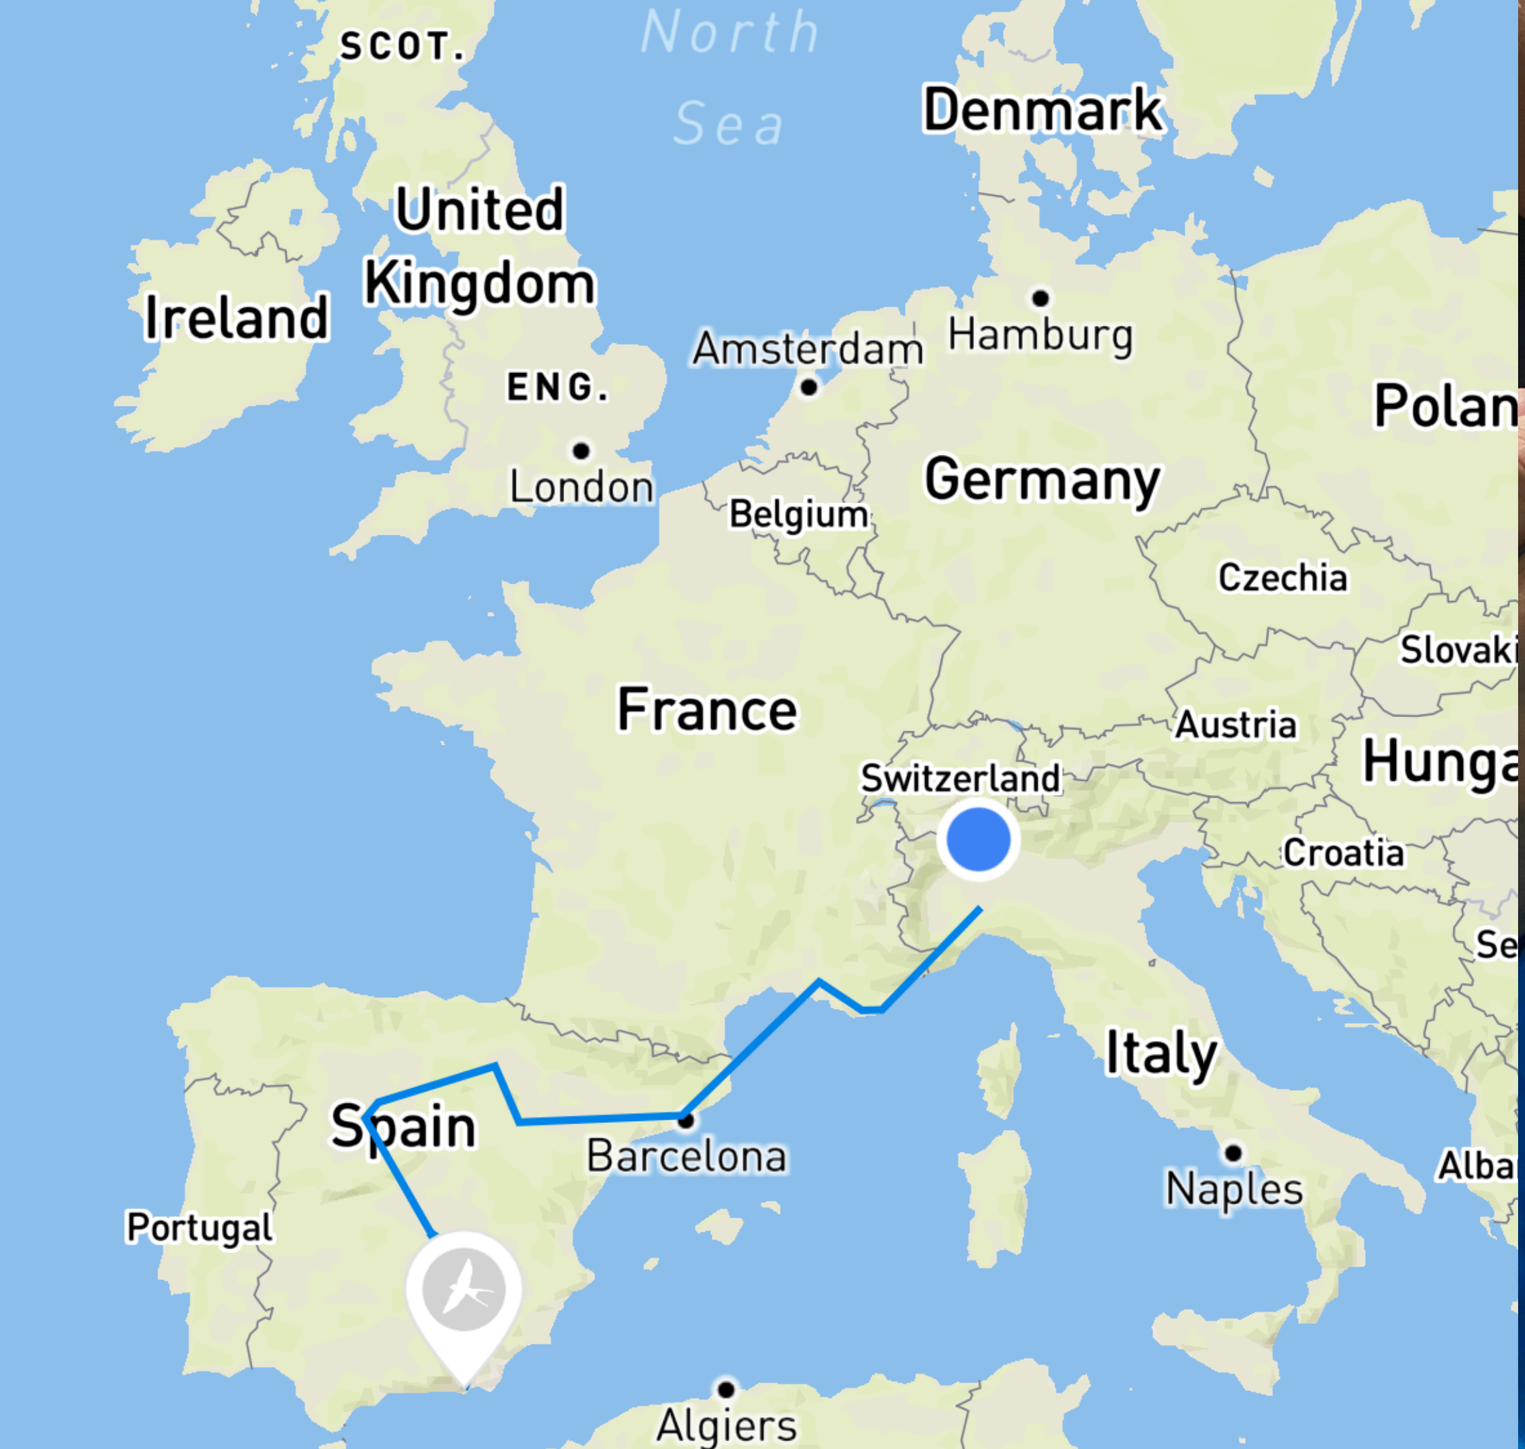
Different nest chamber

Photo by Daniela Casola



Cork coasters to encourage chamber occupancy

Photo by Daniela Casola



SCOT.
North Sea
Denmark
United Kingdom
Ireland
Amsterdam
Hamburg
ENG.
London
Germany
Belgium
Polan
Czechia
Slovaki
France
Austria
Hunga
Switzerland
Croatia
Se
Italy
Spain
Barcelona
Naples
Alba
Portugal
Algiers

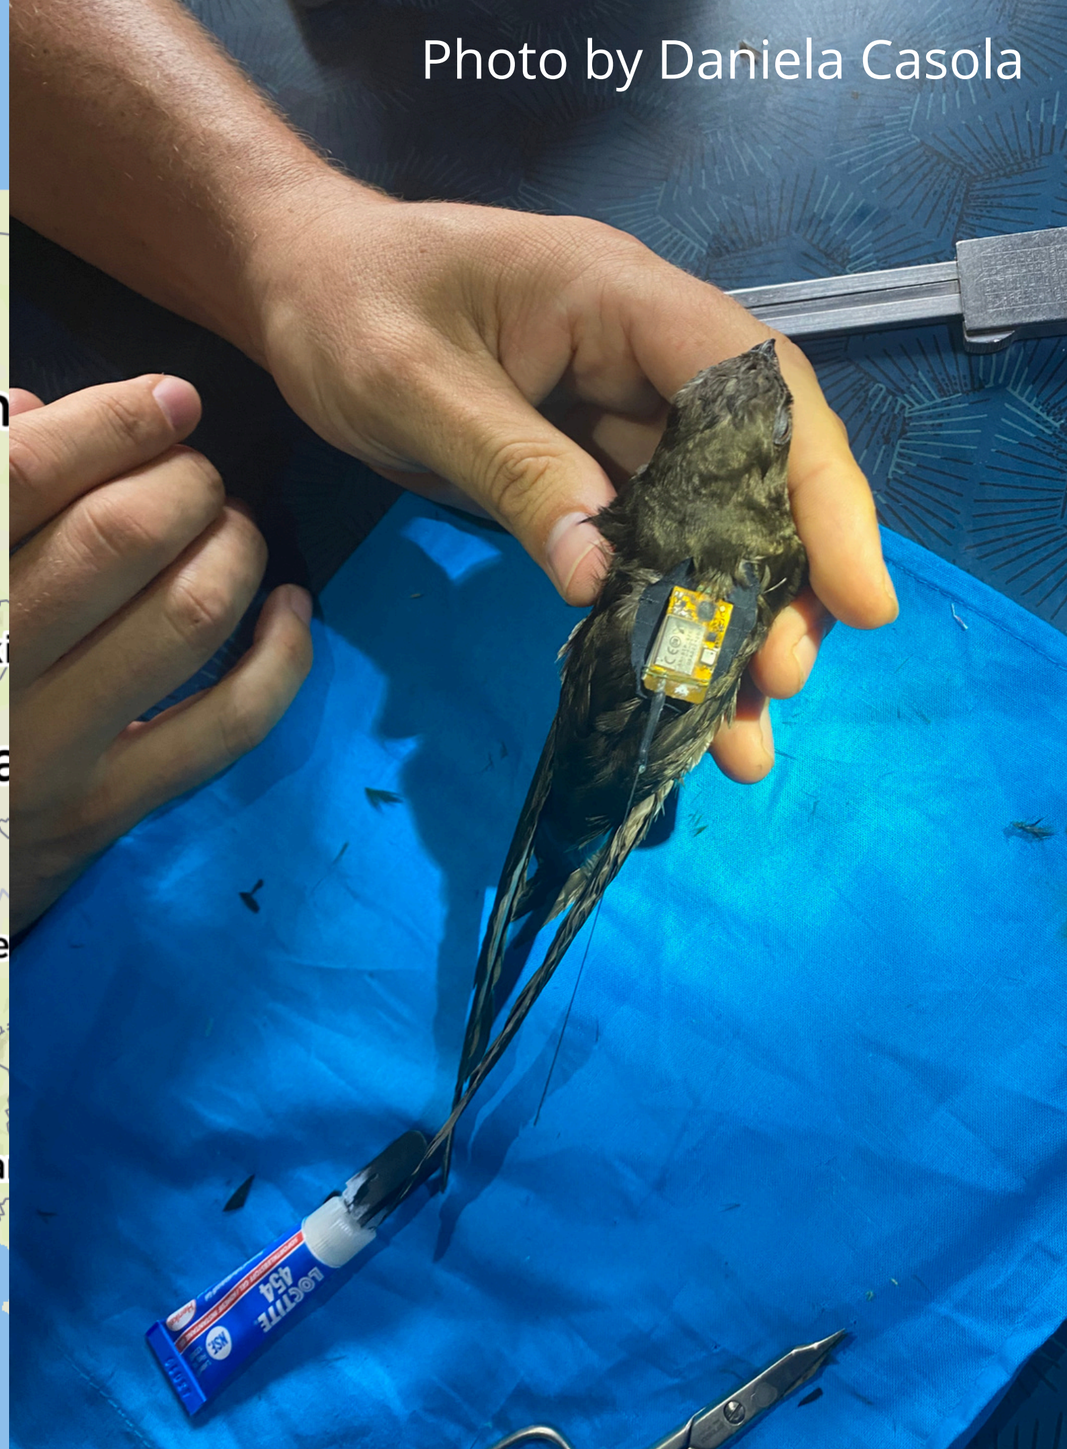


Photo by Daniela Casola

Photo by Franco Aresi

Thank you for your attention

Emanuele Zanchin
emanuele.z2022@gmail.com

Home Swift Home Project
homeswifthome22@gmail.com

Gruppo Insubrico di Ornitologia